ENGLISH APPLIED LINGUISTICS

1.	State the main linguistic levels:
	X Phonetics, Phonology, Grammar and Semantics Structuralism, Generativism and Pragmatics
2.	What is Applied Linguistics?
	A description of particular languages _X_ An interdisciplinary study of language use A scientific study of language in general
3.	Date the origins of language studies in the Western World
	X The Ancient World The Renaissance The Middle Ages
4.	What do structuralists look for?
	Linguistic intuitions _X_ Linguistic facts
5.	Since when is Linguistics considered a science?
	X The 19 th century The 20 th century The 18 th century
6.	State the main linguistic paradigms
	Phonetics, Phonology, Grammar and Semantics _X_ Structuralism, Generativism and Pragmatics
7.	What is the process to follow in a linguistic research?
	Thesis, collecting data, analysing data, hypothesis _X_ Hypothesis, collecting data, analysing data, thesis

